Phillips Academy

Andover
Massachusetts

ALFRED E. STEARNS, Principal

The Academy prepares large classes of young men for College, the scientific schools, and in some cases for the professional schools.

The faculty consists of thirty-one professors and instructors.

The pupils this year number over five hundred, less than one-half of whom are from New England and the others from more distant places.

The next term begins September 14, 1911, with vacations at Christmas and Easter.

The expenses vary from $300.00 to $500.00 a year, according to the accommodations selected.

The income of benevolent funds and scholarship endowments amounts to five thousand a year.

The present needs of the Academy are funds for building, for teachers' salaries, and for general current expenses. For further information and for copies of the annual catalogue, address,

It won't leak

You should own a MOORE'S BECAUSE

It can be carried anyway, anywhere, in pocket or bag, it can't leak.

It writes without shaking. When the cap is on, the pen resting in the ink, remains moist.

It writes continuously with an even flow of ink.

It will carry any kind of ink, even Higgin's India Drawing Ink, the heaviest ink made.

It is the simplest fountain pen to fill. No joints to unscrew, just take off the cap and it is ready to fill.

It is made in the simplest manner of the fewest parts, nothing to get out of order.

It is giving satisfaction to thousands of users all over the world.

It is the best Fountain Pen made.

Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pen

Find this imprint on a fountain pen and you will find the one that is popular for what it does—not for what it is said to do.

The pocket necessity that everyone should possess. Five simple workmanlike parts made from the best grade of Para rubber, highly polished; assembled in a precise but simple manner, with a gold pen point tipped with selected hard iridium. Will last for a lifetime, and always write perfectly, just when required. Ask to see the Clip-Cap.

The American Institute of Architects (Illinois Chapter) has awarded its Gold Medal to Messrs. Marshall & Fox, Architects and Designers of THE BLACKSTONE. The award was made for the following reasons:

First—Splendid example of modern hotel building.

Second—Conveniently arranged for comfort of guests.

Third—Perfectly planned for service.

Fourth—Expresses the best thought in this class of building.

Fifth—Exterior: Pleasing structure — mass good color — contrasts interesting — mansard roof, penthouses, tanks, etc., successfully handled.

Sixth—Interior: Combines originality with a certain feeling of homelikeness rarely found in hotels.

Seventh—THE BLACKSTONE was considered by the jury of awards a step in advance of any other hotel in the United States.

Packard
MOTOR CARS

IN the 1912 line of Packard cars there are three dozen combinations of bodies and chassis from which to select a car to meet your exact needs. You may have the Packard "Six" the Packard "30" or the Packard "18" in any desirable open or enclosed style.

You also may have the assurance that you are paying the same price that is paid by every other customer and you may have PACKARD SERVICE.

Back of the cars, back of the assurance and back of the service is the Packard Motor Car Company, which has done nothing else for fourteen years than build motor cars of the highest type and develop their sale on the basis of a universal square deal and service of the highest character for every owner. Packard cars are built entirely in the Packard shops. These shops comprise 33 acres of floor space. They house a unit organization with one ideal—The advancement of Packard standards. You get the best efforts of this organization in a 1912 Packard car.

The allotment of cars for this territory is definite and limited. Early orders obtain preference in the selection of dates of delivery. Send for a catalog now.

THE OTHER SIDE

ONE phase of photography is what you think of the results—another is what your friends will think of them. Do you know how much artistic standing is given when the signature "Purdy" is on the mount? No explanation is needed. It is recognized as Boston's standard. Posing and lighting and printing indicate refinement which is carried into every detail. . . .

EDITORIAL

IN this volume the editors present to the students of Phillips Andover the Nineteen Hundred and Eleven "Pot-Pourri and Class Book." We wish to thank heartily all those who have so kindly contributed in any manner to its publication.

We have attempted to unfold the story of Nineteen Hundred and Eleven's school life and character by means of statistics and illustrations, and we sincerely hope in later years, as well as at present, our readers will find pleasure in turning over the leaves of this book whenever their thoughts wander to their pleasant days spent in old Andover.

CLASSES

The Junior Year

IN September, 1908, the Class of 1911 started its career. After having said "good-bye" to all our friends, eighty-one of us, sheepish-looking fellows, gathered in front of the Chapel, and watched the "old fellows" shake hands and joke with one another, while we silently looked on, wishing that we were some place else. By degrees our timidity left us, and we entered Chapel in time to occupy the rear seats. There we heard that our first duty was to see Mr. Eaton in Room 4 to make out our schedules. This was a tedious task, especially for Mr. Eaton, who tried to convince us that it was impossible to attend two recitations at the same time.

For the first week or so, the upper class men were very attentive to us, especially at night, to make up, I suppose, for the lack of interest they showed in us the first morning at Chapel. However, we were not bothered by them for long, because the football season had begun.

There was an abundance of good material on the squad, and under the leadership of Coach Lillard and Captain "Dick" Merritt, a victory over Exeter was expected. As the season progressed, and victories were won, our spirits rose accordingly. When the eventful day came, Exeter went down to defeat to the tune of 9 to 6. Our class was represented on the team by Porter and Ely. We were also represented on the second team by Gatins.

The winter term was soon upon us with its studies, its hockey, its basketball, and its "gym." In the latter "Doc." Page tried to impress on us the rudiments of how to keep in perfect health, while his assistant, Betteridge, instructed us how to make graceful angles with parallels, how to dive through rings, and how to do other foolish things. During this dreary term, Captain "D" Knox of the track team, and Captain "Jim" Reilly of the baseball team, worked hard to keep up to the standard of the year which "Dick" Merritt had made.

The Spring term brought its outdoor exercises and affairs assumed a more lively aspect. Our old rival defeated us in track, but we made up for it a week later in baseball, when "Jim" Reilly and his team brought home a victory by the score of 3 to 1. Our class had no representatives on either of these teams.

Now the days passed rapidly, and our first year at Andover soon came to an end. We parted for the summer vacation, happy in the thought that we were "preps" no more.

N. W.

Junior Middle Year

OW happy we were when we returned in September and realized that we were "Preps" no longer. True, there were many new faces in our class, and this new material added to our fine spirit which soon showed itself. In the Fall class track meet, 1911 scored 36 1-6 points to the Seniors' 36 1-3 points. Tilton and Gould scored heavily in several events for 1911. Andover easily defeated Exeter in the annual football game, Captain Coates being leader. 1911 was represented by Ely, Porter, and Potter. 1911 did not do very well this year in class football, the championship being a tie between 1909 and 1910. In the cross-country class race, 1911 fared better, landing the championship and class numerals. The 1911 runners were, Captain Gould, McCrone, and Lucey.

After the Christmas holidays everybody was compelled to take the usual "gym" work, which, combined with hard study, certainly kept everyone busy. Andover sent nine men to the big B. A. A. meet held on February 6, and they returned with much more experience, but that was all. A week later Andover's team entered the Indoor Interscholastic meet and fared a little better, the relay team beating Exeter handily and equaling the record.

Captain Snell led a victorious basketball team for Andover during this term, the team winning every game played, twelve in all. 1911 was not represented on the team. Martin led the hockey team, which had a less successful season. 1911 had her share of men on the different musical clubs during the Winter.

The much-looked-for Spring term finally came, and with it the baseball and track season. Andover did not do much in either of the Interscholastic track meets, while Exeter performed exceedingly well. When the two teams met at Andover on May 31, however, we won with a score of 49 to 47. 1911 was represented by Porter, Tilton, and Gould. It was a splendid fight, and "Sid" Peet received the credit with much modesty. Captain Hopwood led the team. After a fine season the baseball team journeyed to Exeter and in a heavy rain lost the annual game with a score of 5 to 3. Burdett captained the team. 1911 was represented by J. S. Reilly, E. Brown, and Wright. This closed the year as far as athletics were concerned, but our desire to get home was not appeased until we had taken that awful week of final examinations in June. But they were over very soon, and we were shaking hands and shouting, "See you again, next year!"

WM. E. GOULD

Middle Year

WHEN we returned to Andover in the fall of 1909,—some of us, before school opened, some of us on September 16th, and some of us six weeks later,—we determined to make our Middle year a grand success. After the usual “hazing” of the “preps,” we settled down to the more serious matters of school life. The first thing the class did was to win the relay championship after a hard struggle with the Seniors.

With but four “A” men back on a football squad composed of very raw material, the prospects of defeating Exeter were not bright. However, Andover had been very fortunate in securing the services of a coach who knew football from A to Z. The record of the team during the preliminary season was discouraging, but no Andover team ever journeyed to Exeter with more fighting spirit than did the one which Captain Large and Coach Hawley developed. On November 6th, Andover showed her superiority over Exeter for the fifth consecutive year, this time by a 3 to 0 score. “Rib” Porter of 1911 won the game by means of his good right foot. Rogers, York, and MacDonald also represented the class on the team.

After the football celebration the most important event before the Christmas vacation was the cross-country meet with the Yale and Dartmouth Freshmen, which Andover won. Gould of 1911 finished second after a hard fight with Captain Hayes for first place.

On January 6th we returned ready for the stiff work of the winter term. The weather proved to be very unfavorable for hockey, and as a result no team was organized. The basketball team soon rounded into shape, and under the leadership of Captain Swihart, had an excellent season. “Gene” Brown, Andover’s crack baseball pitcher, upheld the honor of 1911 on the team. The track squad had been practising on the board track, and on February 17th many of us went to Boston to see it perform in the B. A. A. meet. Exeter easily won the meet, but had to fight hard to win the relay race. R. C. Martin represented 1911 on the relay team.

1 9 1 1 P O T P O U R R I

During the winter term the musical clubs had a very successful season, winding up with a joint concert with Exeter, given at the Andover Town Hall. Fonda and Black, both of 1911, led the Mandolin and Banjo Clubs respectively.

Our class basketball team won the class championship, and incidentally was one of the best class teams in the history of the school.

We now turned our attention to the Junior Prom, which the class gave for the Seniors. It was a grand success and we certainly did enjoy it. From now on it was a steady grind, and we were very happy when March 30th came.

On April 7th, we again came back to Andover and saw the baseball team hard at work. The track team's prospects were very favorable, but on May 7th it went down to defeat at the hands of the Harvard Freshmen. However, we still had hopes for a victory over our Exeter rivals. On a gloomy, rainy day we went to Exeter and saw our team defeated by a splendid Exeter team. Gould, Butts, Meader, Gile, Tilton, Gordon, MacMurray, Kennedy, and Captain-elect Martin represented 1911 on the team.

We now pinned our faith to the baseball team to retrieve our lost laurels, and this it certainly did. After eleven innings of grand baseball, the famous old Andover fighting spirit conquered our rival's team, which had been the favorite in the betting previous to the game. The score was 5 to 4, and Captain-elect Reilly, Beedy, Daugherty, Wright, Ripley, and Middlebrook represented 1911 and did much to humble our sister school.

The next few weeks we spent in preparing ourselves for college, and on June 15th our eventful and successful Middle year came to a close.

HERBERT J. KOOP

Senior Year

WITH the importance and dignity which every fellow feels when he returns to Andover for his last year, the class of 1911 came back to the old Hill last September. We rejoiced in the fact that we were Seniors, but along with this came the realization that this year would be our last. Our very joy on returning we knew would turn to sorrow when we were to leave.

A large squad reported for the football team, and, under the able guidance of Mr. Lillard and Captain Rogers, a fast team was soon developed. The preliminary games were played with but one defeat, and the prospects of defeating Exeter were extremely bright. On November 4th, cheered by hundreds of loyal students and graduates, the wearers of the blue humbled the red and gray by the overwhelming score of 21 to 0. York, Randall, Martin, and MacDonald represented the class on the team, while Thompson managed it. In the class football series, 1911 won their numerals after a hard struggle.

During the winter term, hockey, basketball, and track claimed our attention. In hockey, Mr. O'Brien and Captain Rogers turned out a good team, which completed very creditably the excellent schedule arranged by Manager Williams. H. Middlebrook, Sturgis, and R. L. Smith represented the class on the team. For the first time in the history of the school, hockey numerals were awarded. The series resulted in a victory for the Class of 1913. Captain Hay, with none of the last year's team back, managed to develop a fast basketball team. Most of the games were victories, and some very strong teams were defeated. Gould and Wright played for the Class of 1911, and Butts managed the team. 1913 won the series in class basketball. The track team trained faithfully all during the term on the board track, and, although the team was not very successful in the B. A. A. indoor meet, good experience was gained.

On the evening of February 21st, the Class of 1912 gave their Prom. It was a huge success, socially and financially, and a great credit to the class. This year the musical clubs have been very successful, and the class has taken great interest in them. Manager Tompkins kept up the interest by his fine schedule of trips to the different girls' schools. The Andover-Exeter concert was held in Exeter, and was a great success. Men from 1911 on the Glee Club were: Williams (leader), Randall, Miller, Sturgis, Gould, O'Brien, Hunter and Ballou; on the Mandolin Club: Miller (leader), Hudner, Baker, H. P. Wilson, C. B. Hall, Gates, Leech, Morrison and Hamerslag; on the Banjo Club: Morrison, Miller, C. B. Hall, Kuhn, Gates, Fay, Gifford and Nute.

1 9 1 1 P O T P O U R R I

After a short spring vacation we returned to Andover for the best term of the year. The spring term started with cold and stormy weather, which hindered both the baseball and track teams. It soon changed its attitude and is now favoring us with warm, balmy days. The baseball team is hard at work on Brother's Field. The preliminary season has been very notable. All the strong freshman teams have been defeated, and, but for a defeat by Yale Varsity, the schedule would be a complete string of victories. The whole school looks for a celebration when we meet Exeter, but also realizes that it will be a very hard fought game. The track team is developing daily, and by May 30 "Sid" Peet and Captain Martin will have a well balanced team to meet Exeter.

As this term draws near its end, there comes the keenest feelings of regret in the heart of everyone of us. We look back over the year's work, and we all agree that it has been the pleasantest and most profitable in our school life. Some of us will go to college, and some will start right in facing the hard problems of life, but, wherever we may be, let us always be true to old Phillips Andover.

N. F. THOMPSON.

LITERARY genius was first shown by the class of 1911 in its "Prep" year, contrary to the custom of most first year classes. It was hardly to be expected that prizes should be won by members of the Junior class, but 1911 was represented in both the Means and the Draper contests, O. L. Chell being the representative in the former contest and H. H. Skierik and A. L. Jackson in the latter. None of these names are at present on the roll of the class but they show that the spirit was not lacking.

In the Junior Middle year 1911 continued the good record of the first year, R. E. Cox and M. L. Raymond being among the Means speakers, and B. A. Tompkins, M. L. Harrington, J. B. Davis and M. Beede among the Draper speakers, the latter winning second prize. During this year J. H. Gridley, F. K. Douglas and P. F. Stewart were elected to the editorial board of the Phillipian, and R. E. Cox to the Pot-Pourri board.

In the Middle year the literary talent of the class did not increase as much as might be expected considering the work of the two previous years. 1911 was not represented in the Means contest and only in the Draper contest by N. V. Donaldson. S. Morrison was chosen to the Phillipian Board, while J. H. Gridley and W. W. Butts were elected managing editor and business manager respectively for the Senior year. C. R. Lord, J. C. O'Brien, and A. H. Schoellkopf were members of the Pot-Pourri board, and J. Garland of the Mirror board.

The Senior year of the class of 1911 has been successful so far. The Draper speakers have not been chosen as yet, but with L. Smith,

1911 POT POURRI

P. H. English, and S. B. Fry among the Means speakers the class ought to secure its share of honors. A. B. Royce is the first man from 1911 to be on the debating team. The Mirror is in charge of J. Garland and R. G. Hay, and is decidedly better this year than during the previous years that the class has been in school. H. C. Stearns is also on the board from the class.

The Phillipian began the Senior year handicapped by the loss of its managing editor, who did not return to school. The position has been filled by an inexperienced person and the paper has not entirely recovered from the effects of a poor start. A. B. Royce and J. C. O'Brien were elected to the board this year. C. R. Lord is the editor of the Pot-Pourri and A. H. Schoellkopf the manager. Both have worked hard, and a class book of unusual excellence has been produced, with the aid of the following board: W. P. Fay, W. P. Sheffield, H. S. Sturgis, R. E. Cox, J. C. O'Brien, and J. F. Dryden, 2nd.

The class of 1911 has worked hard to uphold the literary reputation of the school and do a little toward the good of Andover and her history. Each has done his part, however small, and the class leaves the result for the future to judge.

P. F. S.

Athletics

AS a class that has attained great distinction on the athletic field, 1911 has few equals. Contrary to customary "Prep" classes, 1911 started off by contributing two men to the victorious football team of 1907. These two men were "Rib" Porter and "Fritz" Ely. Great credit is due Captain Merritt, Coach Lillard, and "Sid" Peet for administering this 9 to 6 victory over Exeter. On the second team we had "Bennie" Gatins.

In hockey and basketball our class had no representatives.

Under the captaincy of D. Knox we saw our first defeat by Exeter. The track team lost, 56 2-3 to 39 1-3.

1911 was surely seeing many celebrations, the second victory coming in baseball, under the captaincy of "Jim" Reilly. Andover won 5 to 3 in a very exciting game. On this team 1911 was represented by "Gene" Brown.

Finishing up a "Prep" year with two victories over Exeter was really "goin' some." Thus, when we came back the next year, our hopes were very high to see three more celebrations. It seemed as though nothing could stop us from winning, for we defeated Exeter 12 to 0 in football, under the captaincy of Frank Coates, Coach Lillard, and trainer "Sid" Peet. The class of 1911 was represented by the following men: "Fritz" Ely, Ralph Pierce, "Rib" Porter, "Jimmie" Fellows, and "Tubbie" Potter. This is some representation for a class to have. On the second team we had Koop, Kelley, and MacDonald. We had "Gene" Brown on the basketball team this year.

Under Captain Hopwood we saw another victory over Exeter, the track team winning, 49 to 47. 1911 contributed "Bill" Gould and "Rib" Porter.

Our string of victories over Exeter was now broken, for we were defeated in baseball this year 5 to 3 at Exeter. Andover's rainy day hoodoo was much in evidence that day. 1911 was represented by "Gene" Brown, "Dick" Wright, and John Reilly.

Coming back the next year, our loss in baseball the previous year was atoned for by a 3 to 0 victory over Exeter in football, under Captain Fred Large. 1911 was again strong this year, being represented by "Rib" Porter, whose drop kick won the game, "Dan" MacDonald, and "Sid" York. On the second team we had Potter, N. Thompson, and Randall.

This year we were beaten in track 54 1-6 to 11 5-6. 1911 had the following men: R. C. Martin, W. W. Butts, Gould, MacMurray, Meader, H. C. Black, Gile, and Gordon.

In one of the most exciting baseball games ever played between Andover and Exeter, Andover won 5 to 4 in eleven innings. On this team we had Wright, Beedy, Daugherty, Ripley, L. Middlebrook, and John Reilly.

The next fall, the beginning of our last year, was ushered in by giving Exeter one of the worst defeats ever. Andover won 21 to 0, and much credit is due Captain Rogers, Coach Lillard, and Trainer "Sid" Pect. The following men from 1911 were on the team: York, Lahr, MacDonald, Randall, R. C. Martin. N. F. Thompson managed the team.

On the basketball team we had Gould and Wright.

Prospects for two more victories over Exeter are good. Captain Martin leads the track team, and Captain Reilly the baseball team.

In conclusion, after reading over the above paragraphs, you will all agree that 1911 has surely set a good example, and would make a good model for coming classes to copy.

Musicals

HE Musical clubs had held their trials within a month after school had opened last fall, and were well under way. All the first term they worked hard and faithfully, but their efforts were no less than those of the manager, who secured a large number of good trips.

On October 29, the first concert was held in the Andover Guild for the benefit of the same. The final concert of the Fall Term was held at the Quincy Mansion School. After the program had been rendered, a reception and an impromptu dance followed, both of which the clubs thoroughly enjoyed.

During the Winter Term we gave four concerts. Rogers Hall received us with open arms (not literally) on February 18. The only fault we could find was that the evening passed too soon. Our next success was on February 27, when we entertained, and were entertained in Malden at the Kernwood Country Club. On March 3, we showed the school what we could do in the Town Hall. March 18 was the date of the fourth annual Andover-Exeter concert, which took place in Exeter. There we were extended every courtesy, and they gave us the heartiest welcome we had yet received.

Debating

EBATING at Andover had to face again this year the common opinion that it no longer holds the place in American school or college life that it held but a few years ago. Indeed, the ever-broadening scope of requirements in all institutions of learning, and the resulting heavier schedule of each student, and the numerous new activities which have arisen within this period have all tended to crowd out the interest in debating; but we are justly proud of the great increase of interest shown here this year. Simultaneously with the coming of Mr. Edwards Chappell Porter, who immediately took general charge of public speaking in the school, interest in debating took a decided leap. As a result of this increased interest, the two literary societies of the school each gained a larger and more active membership. About one-sixth of the entire school were active this year in the work of the Philomathean and Forum literary societies.

The Andover Debating Union, founded in 1906 by Paul Michael Piel, is in charge of interscholastic debating. Its membership is now composed of representatives only from the literary societies, but we trust that another year shall see the addition of a comparative representation from the outside student body as well. Of the five Andover-Exeter debates to date, Andover has been victorious but once, in 1907, when the team was led by Edward Jerome Webster. This year John Morier McHatton, Alexander Burgess Royce, and Douglas Auld Shepardson are chosen to represent Andover in the Exeter debate, to be held in May, and we cherish much hope that they will begin the turning of the score in Andover's favor.

The annual Philo-Forum debates for the Robinson Prizes continue to excite keen interest, and this year the audience was the largest which has attended the debate for several years. The winning team was composed of Alexander Burgess Royce, Robert Winthrop Morse, and Douglas Auld Shepardson, representing Philo. The score for these debates threatened at one time to become very one-sided in favor of Forum, but by steady and increasing energy, Philo has just redeemed herself by winning her second successive victory. Philo promises to soon even up the score, which stands eleven to eight in Forum's favor.

In former years, those who have tried for the school teams have been members of one of the literary societies, almost without exception; but we are fortunate this year to have interested the main student body, in consequence of which that body was well represented in the preliminaries. Another result of this increasing interest in debating has been that lower-classmen have made the teams, while formerly they were composed chiefly of upper-classmen, and often of only Seniors.

With this advancement we feel sure that interest in debating at Andover will continue to grow. Our two literary societies remain very important factors in the school life, and they plan to work in co-operation with the public-speaking classes which Mr. Porter proposes to start soon. But while the societies will, without doubt, continue to be the main seats of literary interest in the school, we are confident, however, that the student body will also take up the spirit of debating; certainly, there is not a more wholesome and fascinating form of competition than that which is afforded to those who take an active interest in debating. Finally, if each succeeding class shall contribute as much to this cause as has the class of 1911, we feel assured that debating in Andover will be made what it once was, and ought still to be.

Religious

THE Society of Inquiry is the Christian Association of the school. The object is to maintain and extend a strong moral sentiment, to build up Christian character, and to carry on practical work. It holds a weekly meeting Sunday evening. It maintains groups for Bible study and the discussion of moral and religious questions. It promotes mission and educational work in Lawrence.

On looking back over the past year's work we are tempted to say that it has been one of the best the Society has ever had. The Sunday evening meetings have been attended by greater numbers and with more regularity than almost ever before. We feel this to be largely due to the type of speakers that have addressed the meetings. Among the speakers have been Robert E. Speer of New York, Dr. Wright of Yale, Prof. Forbes of Andover, Alfred L. Ripley of Boston, and Principal Stearns of Andover.

The Bible and discussion groups have also been a great success, considering that this is only the third year of their existence in the school. There were nine classes led by professors of the school, which held meetings once a week throughout the winter term. These groups, although they fell somewhat from the number enrolled, were nevertheless well attended and much appreciated by all who accepted this opportunity of a closer relationship with the professors, and of receiving a better knowledge of the Bible, and some good, sound advice.

In regard to the Lawrence work the Society has probably made its greatest advance. For a long time it has been the hope of the Society that it might have its own rooms in Lawrence for the purpose of holding its classes, and also its own director to arrange all such classes. It was thought that perhaps the money needed for such an enterprise might be raised by a regular collection to be taken up at each Sunday afternoon chapel service. The proposition was put before the Student Council by a member of the Society in a most forceful way, and, having been passed by the Council, was put before the school. The measure was passed on by the school with an almost unanimous vote. The work was at once organized under the new system, under the able direction of Mr. C. C. Clough, and classes were held in the school's own rooms shortly after the winter term opened. These classes are composed largely of grown men — Syrians, Lithuanians, and Poles, and led by fellows from the school.

On the whole we feel that the work of the Society is by no means perfect, but it is most decidedly moving forward, and with the more sincere support of the whole school we shall hope for greater success in the coming years.

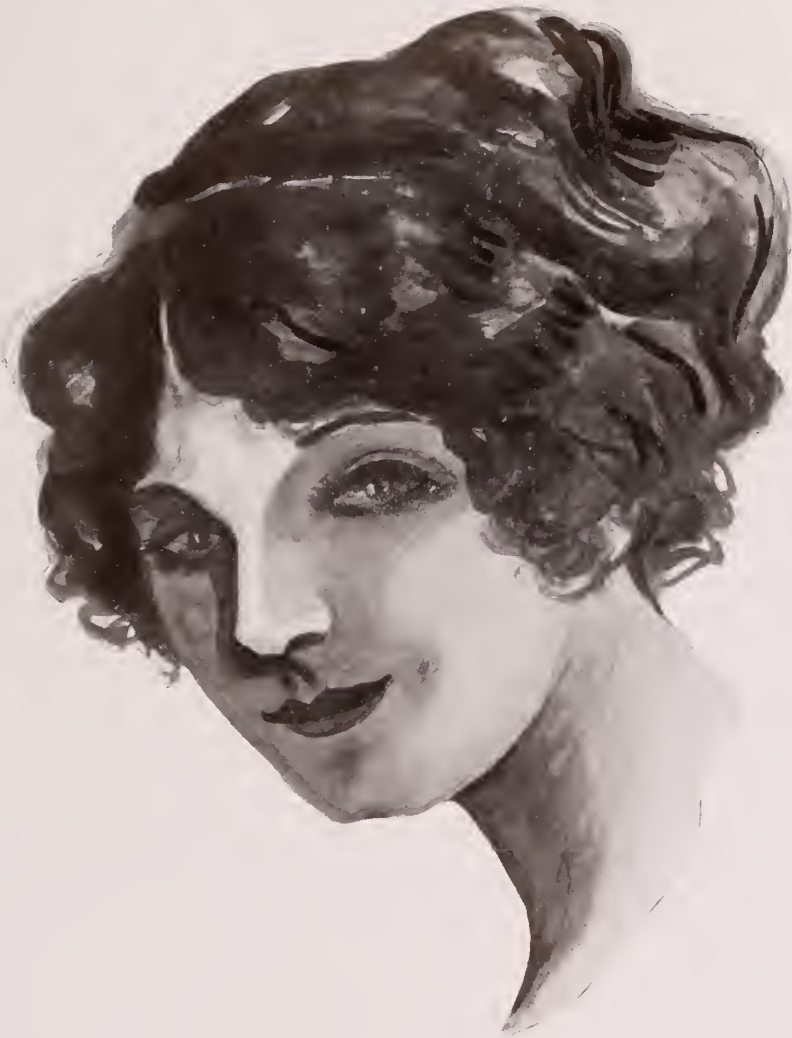

N. V. DONALDSON

Andover at Northfield

For two weeks at the end of every school year, hundreds of fellows, representing practically every school and college of the East, come together to talk over, on an equal basis, the questions that confront college men in general. They have chosen for their meeting-place, a beautiful spot in the mountains on the banks of the Connecticut River at Northfield, Massachusetts. This has been called the Northfield Conference.

It is difficult to set forth in such limited space the doings at this conference. The best speakers in this country and abroad address meetings at which one rubs elbows with some of the most prominent men in the Eastern colleges. The leading athletes of Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Cornell, the Army, and Navy are there. They are all-round men who have made their mark in school and college, and who have come to the Conference to meet other men and give them a boost as they enter upon their Freshman courses.

In 1910, about ten went from Andover to take part in the doings at Northfield. This year many more will go, as Andover is just waking up to the fact that this conference means something, and that this school, as the largest preparatory institution in the East, should have a larger representation.

Swimming Pool
Committee

Swimming Pool History

HE first scheme for building a Swimming Pool at Andover was formulated in the school year of 1906-07. Paul Greenough, then president of the Senior class, enthusiastically proposed that the students of the Academy should raise $50,000 among friends and relatives, and should immediately erect a two-story building, which was to contain a swimming-tank, billiard and lounging rooms, and bowling alleys. Greenough himself offered to give $10,000, with the understanding that the remaining $40,000 should be collected within a specified time. The scheme fell through, however, owing to the lack of interest shown throughout the student body.

During 1908-09, C. W. Hamilton again agitated the question, so a small committee of ten men, was appointed to carry on the work. The committee received many promises that money would be donated, but very few actual pledges were obtained. This state of affairs continued during the next year. Although "swimming-pool" was mentioned, nothing definite was accomplished.

When the school was opened this fall, a few men who were confident of success, got together and decided upon a plan of campaign. In the first place, a large committee, consisting of fifty students, divided into five teams, each team under a captain and the whole body directed by a chairman, was formed. The plea to the school from those in charge was:

"Andover must have a Swimming-pool, not an ornate and luxurious one, as at first desired, but one that will be unpretentious, yet adequate. If the men of Phillips Academy will enter into the contest with the proper spirit, success will be theirs!"

The undertaking was indeed successful. The athletic association voted $10,000 to the cause, and within one month an additional sum of $13,819, consisting of cash and pledges, was collected by the committee and its many supporters. Therefore, with the $2,757.18 raised in previous years, Andover now had about $25,576 with which to erect the long hoped-for building.

Since then more money has come in, and there is little doubt that ground will be broken in the near future.

Thanks are due to the committee, and the school in general, for hard, untiring work, to Doctor Page for his enthusiasm and earnest endeavor, to Mr. Thompson, the treasurer for his great interest, and to the many friends of the Academy for their loyal help.

- MR. CRAWFORD (speaking of English coins): “What is a guinea?”
- REILLY: “Name of a hen.”

P H I L L I P S A N D O V E R

MR. HINMAN (to bright stude): "Do you know why they are cutting down the trees behind the Abbot House?"

STUDE: "No; why?"

MR. HINMAN: "To let a little son in."

HOLMES: "You have a beautiful voice."

WILLIAMS: "But yours is better still."

PREP: "Are you 'leven?"

1912: "Not yet, but I'm on pro."

VISITOR: "Does Andover give degrees in the subjects?"

NON EX: "Yes, I have four below."

MR LEONARD: "There are only two words in the English language that begin with 's,' and yet are pronounced as though they began with 'sh:.' 'sugar' and 'sumach.'"

DONALDSON: "Are you sure?"

THE CRUISE OF THE CIGARETTE

The good ship "Cigarette" set forth to plough the wintry wave,
With Captain Reilly in command, a Noble man and brave.
The cargo, ninety Barrells, was all stored in the hold,
Comprised of Bodfish, packed in Brann, which to the French are sold.
The captain stood upon the deck and threw a Look around,
But slipped upon an orange Piel and fell into the sound.
He cried, "Oh, Lord!" and sank like Stone, and here my Story'd close,

PHILLIPS ANDOVER

But for the Cook, who rushed on deck and caught him as he Rose.
He pulled with all his Powers, 'til purple in the face,
And hauled the skipper on the deck, who lay there for a Space,
Then rose and said, "You are a Prince, you also are a Manu,"
And shed Large tears of gratitude, and grasped him by the Hann.
By now the Sun was in the West; six Bells and close of day,
So the captain called the starboard watch, went down and hit the Hay.
In spite of this Small accident, the ship soon reached Bordeaux,
Pulled up the Flagg, unpacked the fish and waited for the dough;
The French, eager to Fry the fare, closed round with awful din,
Paid Gold and Silver for the fish, and even bought the Finns.
And now the captain thought the time was ripe to paint the ship,
Battered and scarred and salty, after the ocean Tripp.
Cole Black, Snow White, and also Brown, and many other Hughes,
Were slapped upon her sides to make her ready for the cruise.
From here to English shores they sailed, and many months did roam,
Before they crossed the sea again, and saw the Hills of home.

STURGIS

“THE HAPPIEST NIGHT OF HIS LIFE”

“Get Rich Quick Wallingford,” “The Boss” of “The Concert,” loitered “Over Night” on “Pomander Walk.” As he strolled along he beheld the dim form of a maiden loom up through “The Deep Purple” of the dusk.

He accosted her: “Excuse me, but ‘Alma Where Do You Live?’”

“The Girl,” like “Everywoman,” was startled at “The Echo” of “The Spendthrift’s” voice, but she soon regained her self-control.

“Sir,” she answered, “I am ‘The Pink Lady,’ commonly known as ‘Naughty Marietta.’ At present, I am about to visit ‘Two Women,’ ‘Madame X,’ and ‘The Fascinating Widow,’ so let me pass!”

The man chuckled softly to himself. “I’ll Be Hanged If I Do,” he whispered.

The girl was clever. With a half-smothered scream she evaded her tormentor in the dark.

“You Scarecrow,” she hissed as she rushed by, accompanying her words with that awful, that weird, that intangible thing — “The Twelve Pound Look!”

A PLEA

(Kipling won’t care.)

The Profs they used their bloomin’ trots,
When they was stumped and up a tree.
They knowed it ’elped — oh, awful lots! —
And so they ponied — same as me!

Instructors in them happy days
Was sensible and kindly, too;
They saw and understood the ways
Of students — jest the same as you!

So, sirs, may you now say your piece,
But let things slide without a fuss.
You ponied then; so cease, please cease,
And wink at all — the same as us!

PHILLIPS ANDOVER

- A stands for Atchison, one of the boys.
He grinds calmly on, and makes hardly a noise.
- B is for Black; "Old Sol" he is called.
When one sees and hears him, one's almost appalled.
- C stands for Champlin, who'd like to be king,
But fate has ordained that he be not a thing.
- D is for Darling, for Dupont and Dodge.
The three mixed together make quite a hodge-podge.
- E is for English, eccentric throughout,
But willing to work there is never a doubt.
- F stands for Fay, a fop to the core,
Who powders and paints — then powders some more.
- G stands for Gross, the doll of the class.
O rapturous beauty, O sweet little lass!
- H is for Hamerslag. Meek's not the word,
For a twitter from him has never been heard.
- I stands for Ives, who titters, all right,
At any old thing from morning till night.
- J is for Jones, the big, jolly Swede.
In all that you do, Bob, you'll surely succeed.
- K is for Koop, a clever young soul,
Whose puns are facetious, whose humor is droll.
- L stands for Lo d, who prints all this bosh,
With Schoellkopf's skilled help. Give them credit, by Gosh!
- M is MacMurray, a wonder at jumping,
With him for an aid we'll keep Exeter humping.
- N 's for the Nute brothers, preachers-to-be.
Two there are now where there used to be three.
- O stands for Ogden, as fresh as they make them;
And also for Ogden — please don't mistake them.
- P is G. Porter, the clown of the school.
He tries to be earnest, but fails as a rule.

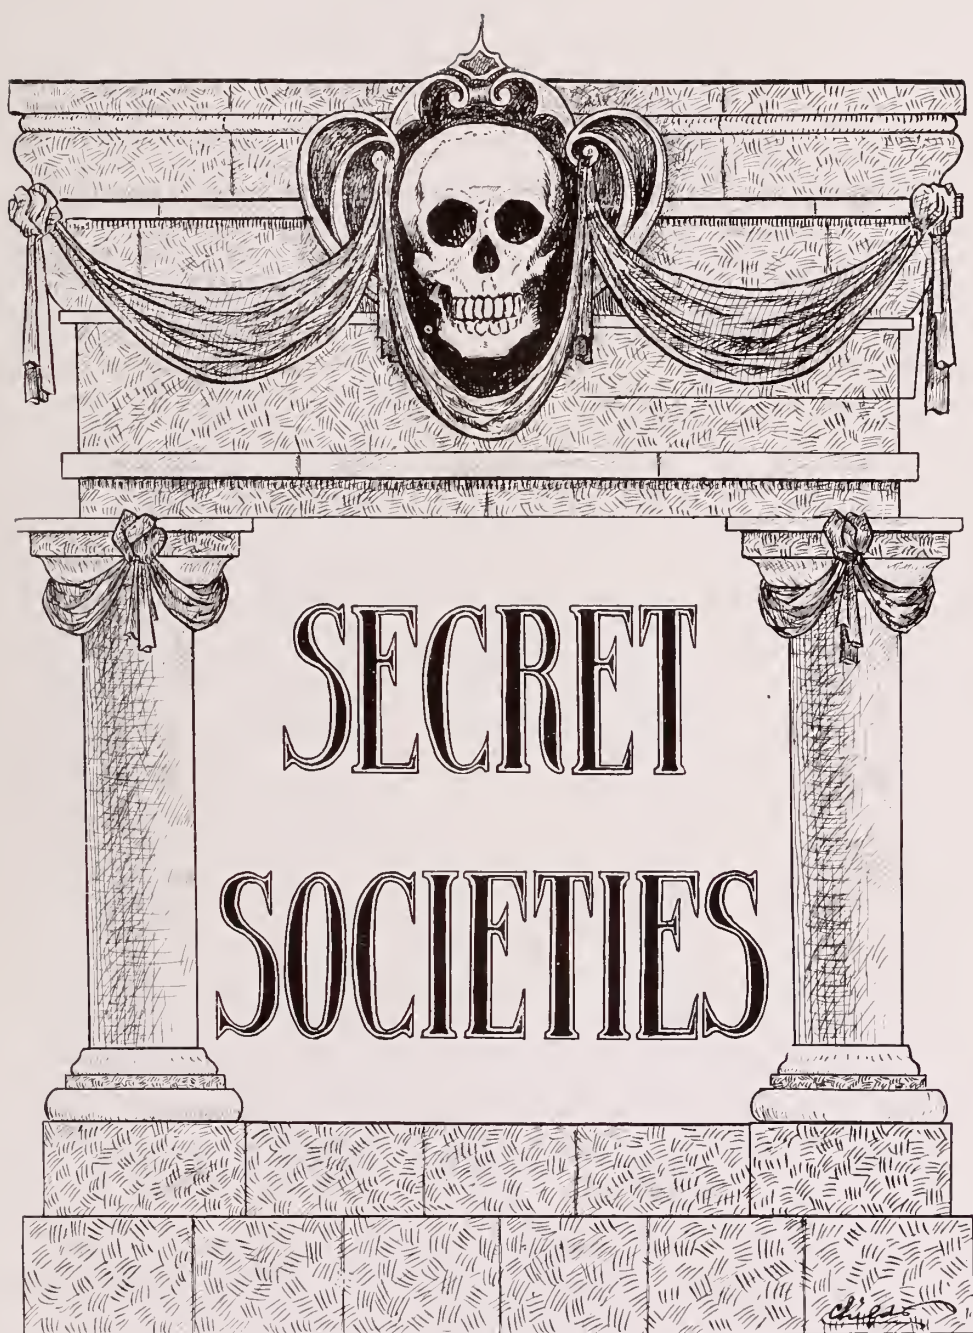

1911 POT POURRI

- Q should start Kwan, but it doesn't, worse luck;
So Quinn we must mention, because we are stuck.
- R stands for Reilly, who's true to the Blue, sir;
Your spirit we like; so our hats off to you, sir!
- S is for Sheffield, a bold Irish lad.
~~He~~ He may win his "A." Let us hope so, bedad!
- T stands for Thayer. Sh! Mum is the word!
You think he is lazy? In this you have erred. (?)
- U is for Urmston, vainglorious, null,
He loafes all the time, and is awfully dull.
- V is for Vibert, a favorite with many (?)
We'd grant him good traits, but he hasn't got any.
- W is for Wilson. Which one? We don't care.
There are four, we admit, but each one has a share.
- X is a very hard letter to find.
For further particulars see Mr. Lynde.
- Y stands for York, whom all of us thank
For making successful our new swimming tank.
- Z will now end all this alphabet stuff.
I don't know how you feel, but I've had enough.

THE OTHER SIDE

ONE phase of photography is what you think of the results—another is what your friends will think of them. Do you know how much artistic standing is given when the signature "Purdy" is on the mount? No explanation is needed. It is recognized as Boston's standard. Posing and lighting and printing indicate refinement which is carried into every detail.
